Spring & Fall 4-Day Science Camps: Hike in the forest, do astronomy, geology, ecology, nature writing, and team building. Meals, heated lodging, activity guides, field journals, and instructional staff are all included.
$270 per student

Winter 2 & 3-Day Programs*:* Snowshoe and learn winter safety, snow science, winter adaptations, and astronomy. Stay in cozy heated cabins on the shore of Lake Tahoe. Meals, teaching staff, and snowshoes provided. Warm clothing can be lent as needed.
$180 per student for three days and $120 for two days

Day Trips: Hike in the forest, learn local species and issues, net aquatic invertebrates. Snowshoe to learn about our Sierra snowpack and winter ecology. Learn how to test and assess water quality.
Costs vary; $20 per student.

NOTE: Some discounts may be available depending upon community support and are allocated based on percentage of children qualifying for free and reduced meals.

20% deposit reserves your session. Your deposit is due within 45 days of receipt of this registration form, or your preferred session may be advertised to other schools.

Deposits are needed at least six months before your scheduled program season to guarantee camp availability. Refundable until March 1 for fall programs, Oct. 1 for winter programs, and Nov. 1 for spring programs. We are prepared to adapt to weather conditions and only expect to re-schedule or cancel due to road closures.

Payment: Balance is due by the first day of program. A final invoice will be provided.

Guaranteed Minimum = For overnight camp, your school is responsible for the cost of the guaranteed minimum of 40 students, even if the total student count in attendance drops below that minimum. The single-day day trip bookings can be billed to the exact total in attendance on the day of the trip. We may deny student numbers above the anticipated number because of program site limitations.
